Tony Davis

State champion at Mount Carmel (Ill.) High School, he won two junior college national championships at Iowa Central Community College, posting won-loss records of 33-4 as a freshman 134-pounder and 32-1 as a sophomore 142-pounder. In his first season at Northern Iowa, he went 19-4 and finished national runner-up at 149 pounds at the NCAA Championships. He atoned for his runner-up season by rolling to a 27-1 record and winning the national championship at 149 pounds as a senior in 2000. In his four years at Iowa Central and Northern Iowa, he compiled a won-lost record of 92-10 and won three national championships. He was named Northern Iowa's Outstanding Senior Athlete in 2000.

Following his collegiate career, Davis embarked on a career at the international amateur level, and took fourth place at the 2003 U.S. World Team Trials, followed by a fifth-place finish at the 2004 U.S. Olympic Trials. He is a two-time U.S. Open place winner.

Davis's career is well documented as a youth in Illinois, starting out with the Harvey Twisters wrestling program. He became the state's first five-time kid's state champion
